Grand Knight Message

Hello My Brother Knights. Happy New Year and happy 2015!! Whew, 2015 WOW!! I hope you had a wonderful Christmas with your family and friends!!

As you may recall, our Council was very active with our charitable good works this December. We elected to support an extremely important facility for the poor, especially homeless mothers with their children.

The Alexandria House, through the Society of St Vincent De Paul, does tremendous work to support these mothers and the House itself. There is a school and vocational training provided to these moms to get them moving forward in their lives. Through Sr Judy at St Jerome we provided support to “Barbie and her Son”. Your Council through our fund raising efforts raised $980 towards our efforts!! We were able to purchase two new beds, small kitchen appliances, school supplies for her Son, and gave the Alexandria House itself a check for $300 to help with their school. I met with Michele, the manager of the House and provided her with the check. This is an amazing facility. I have invited Michele to come and speak to us as her time permits, so stay tuned.

Our efforts would have not been possible if it were not for the generous support of all of “You” during our fish fry dinners and a wonderful cash donor who wishes to remain anonymous, plus several Brother Knights. These Brother Knights gave of themselves in a most selfless way by donating their time, resources and effort. Our Council owes a debt of sincere gratitude to Brothers Paul Callinan, Mervin Hughes, Ken Lockwood, Tino Carbajal (who delivered the beds), and newer Brother Knight Robert Lutz!! Thank these great Knights!! Augmenting our charity efforts is a major goal of your Grand Knight.

On Tue Dec 16 we held our annual “Knights Before Christmas” First Degree. It was a great degree lead by the outstanding efforts of our Membership Director Chris Lopez PGK. We have four new Knights in our Council: Charles Mondello, Jon Schillinger, Faustino (Bo) Corona and Joe Curran!! Please welcome these new Knights when you see them at our Council meetings and in our community. I wish to also thank Michael Rachford PGK, our Supreme Field Agent, for his great efforts. New members strengthen our council and our purpose. It provides resources to do more of the good works we are challenged with doing. The strength we obtain from membership enables our order to help those most in need, and it’s very important to make a difference in the lives of so many. Each year the Knights of Columbus touch millions of people all over the world who are in need. In need, physically, monetarily and spiritually, and we must always remember that millions more people are in dire need, especially now more than ever. My Brothers, I am challenging you to please bring one new member into our order at the March First Degree!! Let’s strengthen our council and also make Star Council again this year!

$1.4 Million for Special Olympics World Games

The Knights of Columbus announced a donation to cover the costs of athletes from the US and Canada during their time in Los Angeles for the 2015 Special Olympics World Games.

Special Olympics
GAMES
LOS ANGELES 2015

The Knights' $1.4 million sponsorship will cover food, transportation and entertainment costs for every athlete from the two countries during their time in Los Angeles. Supreme Knight Carl Anderson made the announcement along with World Games CEO and President Patrick McClenahan and Archbishop of Los Angeles José H. Gomez.

“The Knights of Columbus were there with Special Olympics and its founder, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, from the very beginning,” said Supreme Knight Anderson. “Sargent Shriver, Eunice’s husband, was a friend and a proud member of the Knights of Columbus, and like him, we are here today to continue those efforts on behalf of people with intellectual disabilities. Our support exemplifies our commitment to the dignity of every person, our dedication to assisting with our neighbors’ needs whatever they may be, and our deep appreciation for the great work done by Special Olympics.”

Anderson also announced that he is asking KofC leadership in each US state and Canadian province to increase the number of volunteer hours donated to Special Olympics this year. In a 1986 letter, Eunice Kennedy Shriver reflected on the Knights’ long involvement, observing, “When a great organization like the Knights of Columbus decides to support Special Olympics, I know that God is looking after his children”. Patrick McClenahan, president and CEO of Special Olympics World Games Los Angeles 2015 noted: “Anyone that is a part of the Special Olympics movement is deeply aware of the long and generous support by the Knights of Columbus, and today’s pledge is another amazing milestone. We hope their donation inspires other organizations to be a part of what will no doubt be a life-changing experience for all involved in the 2015 Special Olympic World Games.”

Also at that event, Archbishop José H. Gomez also announced the Archdiocese’s spiritual support for the World Games. “The Catholic community is happy and proud to welcome the Special Olympics to Los Angeles,” Archbishop Gomez said. “The Special Olympics is a celebration of human dignity and a beautiful sign that our world is truly one family drawn from peoples of every race and language. We look forward to working with the Knights of Columbus, and we pray that this competition will promote solidarity and make all of us more aware of our common humanity.”

In keeping with its long history of support for Special Olympics, KofC councils donated more than $3.5 million to Special Olympics in 2013. Members also provided more than 250,000 hours of service at nearly 20,000 Special Olympics events. KofC councils also donated an additional $13.5 million to a number of other projects assisting people with intellectual disabilities.

Decency Report

Media Won't Label Body of Unborn Baby a Baby

(From Susan Michelle Tyrrell, editor of Bound4Life's blog) - It didn't take much education to see the disparity of language this week when a story in a Midwestern paper reported on the discovery of "fetus bones". Incredulous, I read the report again, hoping to make sense of what a "term fetus" could be, and how a non-human could have bones and a skeleton. Of course, I couldn't, because a fetus brought to "term" is a baby – unless one chooses to kill it with abortion, in which case it's a "choice to terminate the fetus".

A local news station knew only how to mince words as it reported on "the discovery of two fetuses," saying: The county, that hasn't experienced a homicide in nearly two decades, has investigators searching for clues about the death of two fetuses that were old enough to survive outside of the womb. "Fetus Bones?"

Putting these reports together only confused me more. Bones of two fetuses were found. These fetuses were able to survive outside the womb; therefore, the fetuses were victims of homicide. If we apply this to abortion laws, we may find the reason behind the double-talk in these articles. If a fetus that can survive outside the womb is destroyed, then, by definition of the law, every viable abortion would be a homicide.

Oh, wait. See, that's the reason Roe v. Wade cannot survive a new test by the high court. In 1973, we didn't have the science of viability so easily available and obvious to us. We can now prove that the baby's heart is beating before most women even suspect they are pregnant. Even a bunch of sheriff's officers and news reporters that can't decide whether to call it a fetus or a baby can see this. So confused is our society because of the resounding rhetoric of Planned Parenthood and the pro-aborts that journalists and law enforcement officers talk in doublespeak.

However, at the end of the day, there is no denying that two 40-week-old babies died. And the real line of delineation is the most tragic of all: had it happened at the hands of a licensed abortionist, it would have been legal – in many states well past the point of viability, just as long as an abortionist got to the baby before he was born – and, of course, disposed of him through medical waste or human research rather than thrown him outside.

Grand Knight Faith Message

Jesus and Thomas

Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe." Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "You have believed because you have seen me. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

Golf Report

Instead of playing golf, apparently some of our players decided to get a head start on their preparations for Christmas! With the light turnout for our Dec tournament, we decided to play as a single flight. Although Dec 7 was a delightful day, some of us had quite a struggle getting the ball to the green and into that little bitty hole.

Not one birdie, not even a Canada goose, was hit by the entire group. Bob Degnan did handle the challenge well to win the coveted low gross award. We welcome Robert Lutes, a recent brother Knight, who played his first tournament with the group and he drove, the into the wind, Hole #16 nicely, to win a Flag Hole award.

On Sun Dec 14 we held our Quarterly Communion and Mass at Visitation Parish and our Annual Christmas Breakfast at our Council Hall. WOW! What a great showing of Brother Knights and their families. I counted over 70 at the Parish and more at our breakfast!! We had great food, a great event and Santa Claus even appeared for all the kids (big kids and little kids). The poinsettias on each table looked so festive! I wish to personally thank our new Christmas Event Chairman Brother Ken Lockwood for his outstanding efforts!!

Your Council is need of a new Council Picnic Chairman. This is a very important and fun position for our council, with minimal commitment. If you, or someone you know is interested please contact me, your Grand Knight as soon as possible.

We had a fantastic December council meeting with over 40 Brother Knights in attendance! Attending your council meetings is where you will learn all about our great programs receive information and learn about opportunities where you can make a difference in our council and Parishes!

Please make an effort to attend!! Our January Council meeting is Tues Jan 6!! I will see you there at 6:30pm for a great dinner before the meeting!

Thank you for you do!! Always remember to wear your Badge!!

Thank you!!

Vivat Jesus!

What is the 365 Club?

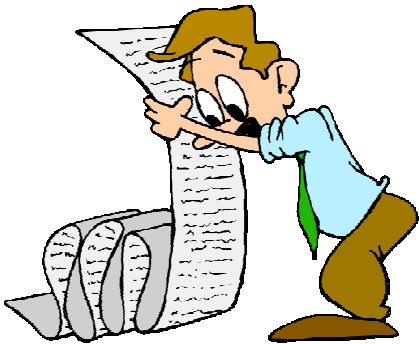

The 365 Club is the primary source of contributions for Columbian Charities. Every Brother is asked to donate $3.65 per year (just a penny a day) to the Columbian Charities. Each Council's Financial Secretary is asked to support the 365 Club and the best way to accomplish this is to add an additional line to the dues billing statement: "365 Club- please add a $3.65 donation to Columbian Charities". This donation will provide every Brother in the Council an opportunity to support our charity.

Funding for the Charity is provided through the generosity of California Councils, individual Brothers, from special events sponsored by Council charity committees and through bequests. Every Knight of Columbus Brother is asked to join the 365 Club and contribute at least one penny a day. The Charity is "Brother Helping Brother"

The last three years donations to the charity have averaged $80,000 less than the amount needed to meet the hardship requests of our Brothers who suffer because of the poor economy. Supreme has had to dig deeply into the reserve funds to fulfill our charitable mission. We as Brothers should try and continue to be as charitable as possible with the funds we have available. We ask for your generous, charitable and fraternal support so that we may continue assisting Brothers in distress, including any from our Council.

New Years Resolutions

With New Years fresh upon us, there is still time to add a few more items to your "Resolutions List"...there is probably some room near the top where eating better and exercising more have already been erased! Here are some KofC items to put on your list:

- * Come to Monthly Meeting and see what's happening
- * Come to a Fish Fry...eat great food and see friends
- * Pay your Member Dues on the day the bill arrives!
- * Recruit a new member and share the KofC with them
- * Come to one event you have never attended before (Casino Night, Picnic, Super Bowl Party, etc, etc)
- * Pick a charity and give some time and treasure (St Margaret Center, Alexandria House, etc, etc)
- * Do one unsolicited good deed at your local Parish

Insurance Field Agent Report

The Value of Membership Referrals

As a professional insurance agent, I really appreciate when a brother Knight clients or his wife refers another member to me. This is a great endorsement of the service I provided and tells me that they were so pleased with what I helped them accomplish that they want me to help others achieve the same level of financial safety and security. When I meet with you, please pass along the names of those who might be able to benefit from the analysis that I provide.

Similarly, there is no better member recruiting tool than a referral. How many of us know an eligible Catholic man who is not a Knight? Do you have Catholic family or friends, local or not, who have yet to join? Most likely they've never been asked and don't know enough about the Order to seek membership on their own.

If you have names of potential members, please pass them along to me or your Grand Knight. Let us know if we can use your name when we make contact...it's always more effective to tell a member candidate that he was recommended by a current member, especially someone he knows. Don't worry if the candidate is outside the area, we can make sure we put these future members in touch with the right people in their communities.

New members are the lifeblood of the Order. All the good deeds done by the Order are driven by the members. Over the past decade, Knights have given more than $1.475 billion to charity and provided in excess of 673 million hours of service. And our membership has merely scratched the surface in North America. Imagine the potential.

DON'T LEAVE HOME WITHOUT YOUR ROSARY!

Remember to carry your rosary at all times
Pray the rosary as often as you can

Remember our deceased Brothers in your prayers.
