Decency Report

Many Superhero Movies are Not for Kids

Kids love superheroes. Since the year 2000, comic-book superheroes have become truly dominant in the film and pop-culture worlds at large.

But even amid the current vogue for superhero movies attractive to adults, kids still love superheroes.

In general, Marvel has done an excellent job in assuring that its most famous characters are both accessible to and acceptable for a young audience.

By contrast, DC has adopted the opposite approach, devoting itself almost exclusively to adult-themed content. Nearly every project undertaken today under the DC aegis is dark, humorless, grim, and uniformly cast in shades of black or darkest grey.

DC's movies features explicit violence. To take just one example: both the most recent superhero franchise movies, Batman vs. Superman and Captain America: Civil War depict a titanic battle between superheroes on opposite sides of an issue; but the tone of the battles is entirely different. The focus is on the mass devastation caused by what are essentially two super-powered terrorists battling one another, endangering countless innocents and destroying a city in the process.

There is always a market for movies that families can watch together. One can only wonder: why won't DC make superhero movies that are safe for kids?

Our June "Caddyshack" 5-club event saw a nice turnout of KofC golfers dressed in colorful splendor. A record tying 9 skins were won: Tim Giroux (3), Tom Hood and Joe Albrecht (2 each) and Mike Rachford and Mike Engler (1 each).

Christy Hughes Kairos Fund

With the third anniversary of the passing of Christy Hughes to ovarian cancer on July 19, Council 3744 is asking all Brothers to consider honoring her memory with a donation to the Kairos Fund at St Monica High.

The fund offers scholarships for students who cannot afford the cost of the annual Kairos retreat. Christy was an active participant and leader of the Kairos experience and the scholarships are a tangible reminder of her love for these retreats.

Visit the www.kofc3744.org website Links page for more information on how to donate.

Insurance Field Agent Report

The Value of Membership Referrals

As a professional insurance agent, one of the things I appreciate most is when one of my brother Knight clients or his wife refers another member to me. This is a great endorsement of the service I provide. It tells me that they were so pleased with what I helped them accomplish that they want me to help others achieve the same level of financial safety and security. When I meet with you, please pass along the names of those who might benefit from the analysis that I provide.

Similarly, there is no stronger membership recruiting tool than the referral. How many of us know an eligible Catholic male who is not a member of the Knights of Columbus? Do you have Catholic family or friends, local or not, who have yet to join? Most likely, they've never been asked and don't know enough about the Order to seek out membership on their own.

If you know a potential member, pass them along to me or your Grand Knight. Let us know if we can use your name when we contact the gentlemen in question. It's always more effective to tell a member candidate that he was recommended by a current member, especially someone he knows. Don't worry if a candidate is outside the area I serve or beyond the district of the local councils, we can put these future members in touch with the right people in their communities.

New members are the lifeblood of the Order. All our good deeds are driven by the members. Over the past decade, Knights have given nearly $1.5 billion to charity and over 673 million hours of service. Our membership has merely scratched the surface in North America...just imagine the potential.

Contact me today to learn more about our products...
