Grand Knight Message

Happy Easter! I hope this Lenten season helped bring you closer to Jesus and deepen your faith. Let us now celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord!

As Lent ends, so does our Fish Fry season and I would like to thank the countless people that contribute so much to the success of our dinners. To the gentlemen who set up tables and prep the food, to the Ladies of Columbus who bake pies and serve dinners, to the Boy Scout troops and American Heritage Girls that bus our tables, to the gentlemen taking orders and selling raffle tickets, and to the skilled teams of cooks and bartenders, thank you, thank you, THANK YOU!

Finally, I would especially like to thank all of you that came in to eat or picked up food to go; your contributions are indeed exemplary. On Apr 20 we have our famous Italian Dinner, hosted by Brother Paul Condran PGK and his wife Dina. We also have our equally famous Mexican Dinner on May 4, hosted by Brother Alex Padilla and his wife Stella. Mark both of these dates down and be there!

On Tue Apr 20 we welcomed 3 new brother knights at our 1st Degree ceremony. Congratulations to our new Brothers Clifford Green, James DeAngelis, and Nicholas Marcelletti. I expect to see you, and all other 1st Degree Knights, at our 2nd Degree ceremony on Tue Apr 17. We can always recruit more good men.

By now you should have received your tickets for the Rancho San Antonio raffle. Rancho San Antonio runs solely on donations to help young men with what could be their last and only chance at life. Brother Mike Engler PGK has once again put great efforts into this noble cause, and together we aim to beat last years sales. If you want more tickets do not be afraid to ask; Mike will happily get you as many as you want.

Recently I received a message from esteemed Brother Vince Migliazzo PGK that is worth mentioning, which I will paraphrase: "...there are individuals that never cease to give of themselves and yet fail to be recognized...four of those helpers are not members of the Knights of Columbus...one of the hardest dedicated workers is NOT A CATHOLIC...these are dedicated members of the community who just want to make it a better place to live and share...we thank you and we know God thanks you: Tom Roze, Gary Tyron, Steve Kaufman and Marlene." Thank you Vince for sharing our sentiments. We are blessed to have individuals like them amongst us.

Rancho San Antonio Drive in Full Swing

The Rancho San Antonio drive is now in full swing. If you did not receive Rancho tickets in the mail, please contact Mike Engler PGK. For those of you who have already purchased...thank you!

We hope to raise $6,000 this year for this noble cause. If every Brother purchases just one book, we will make our goal. As of Mar 22, 16% of the mailed tickets were purchased. The drive ends April 30, so please get your money and stubs in now!

Last year, parish ticket sales raised $3,500. Visitation got this year started on the March 17-18 weekend. A great job by all the Brothers selling, especially the 5pm Mass crew.

We need your help to continue with this success. The more Brothers selling, the higher the sales!. Please come 10 minutes before the Mass you are attending and stay 10 to 15 minutes after to help man the tables at the upcoming parish sales:

St Jerome	April 14-15	Contact Tony Holloway
St Anastasia	April 21-22	Contact Robert Lutes

For questions, more tickets or to help sell at a parish, please call or email me Chairman Mike Engler PGK at 310-258- 9482 or mengler729@sbcglobal.net

3 New 1st Degree Knights in March!

Congratulations to the three candidates who made their 1st Degree on Mar 20, 2018 at the "Knight Before Easter" 1st Degree ceremony held at the Council Hall.

Chaplain Fr. Jim Forsen, GK Alex Flores, New Brothers Clifford J Green Jr (St Jerome), Jamie DeAngelis (Visitation), Nicholas Marcelletti (St Jerome), and Mike Rachford PGK.

Decency Report

Remembering Family

In an effort to provide parents with tools to keep your family's TV viewing consistent with the values you have set for your home, here are a few tips you might find helpful:

Realize that kids consume information from all of their personal media spaces (smartphones, tablets, television, video games, and more).

Parents can give their children training in critical thinking skills necessary to understand the complex issues facing them every day.

Help kids understand that real life issues are often over simplified by the media. This can be addressed by helping kids distinguish images and rhetoric from reality. Let your children know that it is OK to perceive the world differently from the way media presents the world.

Advise your kids that media messages contain values and ideologies that can produce social and political consequences.

Child development research shows that children under the age of eight have difficulty critically comprehending televised media messages and are prone to accept all messages as truthful, accurate, and unbiased.

Golf Report

Our Mar Westchester K of C Tournament was played on a sunny, chilly afternoon, with a gusty breeze pushing our golf balls around. Tom Hood and Tim Giroux handled the weather well collecting most of the awards. Tim began with a birdie on Hole #1. Tom birdied #5, and then again on #16: after a fantastic chip over a bunker, Tom's ball found its way around a huge break into the cup; the play of the day.

Tom collected three skins, Mark Brosmer, Tim Giroux and Erick Neblina had two skins each, and Mike Engler PGK and Chuck Heteniak each scored one.

Since we celebrate Easter on the First Sun of Apr we will play our next tournament on the second Sun, Apr 8. Tee off time will be about 11:15 AM at the Westchester Golf Course. All Knights and guests are welcome. Hope to see you there.
