Grand Knight Message

Greetings my Brother Knights, families and friends,

As we enter Lent, please continue to support our community efforts: we have Fish Fries every Friday this season!!!

Please also keep our beloved Priests and Sisters in your prayers, especially our Chaplain, Fr Jim Forsen. Their efforts constantly lift us up, and we should always do the same for them. May God's blessings continue to shine upon you and your loved ones!

- Most Worthy Grand Knight Mervin Hughes, reporting

Rancho San Antonio Raffle Ticket Sales

Council 3744 has kicked off our annual fundraising for Rancho San Antonio "Boys Home of the West". This facility exists to help rehabilitate confused, abused or neglected adolescent boys and keep them from ending up as just another negative statistic. For many, Rancho San Antonio is their first real chance to succeed. Its current success rate is over 90%.

Learn more about this great organization at their website (www:ranchosanantonio.org) or watch a video on our council web site.

Open House on May 6...celebrating their 87th year of service!

Los Angeles area Knights of Columbus councils have supported this facility for many years, primarily through sales of fundraising raffle tickets. In 2019, we sold an amazing $8500 worth of raffle tickets! Our goal this year is to match that amount! Note: We sold a winning $100 prize ticket to a St Jerome's parishioner. Maybe this year it will be the $3000 Grand prize ticket.

You can help us achieve this goal in two different ways:

1 Buy tickets yourself or sell them to friends and neighbors.

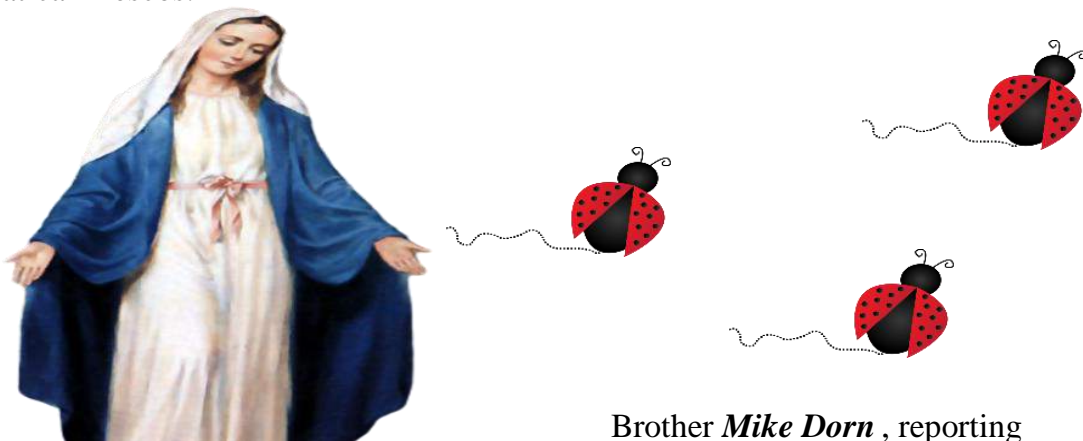

Due to my hard drive crashing, I am behind in mailing out the raffle tickets. You should soon be receiving a book of 10 tickets (the requested donation is $2 a ticket or $20 dollars for the book). Please purchase as many tickets as you can and return the donation and the ticket stubs as soon as you can but no later than April 27. Please contact me at (703) 350-7262) or mengler729@sbcglobal.net) if you did not get tickets, need more tickets or have any questions. continued page 4

Of Lady Bugs and Other Catholic Things

Did you know ladybugs are named for the Blessed Virgin Mary? According to tradition, when insects threatened to eradicate European agriculture during the Middle Ages, locals joined farmers in praying to Mary for divine intervention. Swarms of ladybugs, famous for devouring pesky aphids, descended and saved the crops. In gratitude, the faithful named the helpful insects “Our Lady’s Beetle,” later changed to ladybeetle or lady bird, but in the United States they became known as ladybugs. By the way, the story that only female ladybugs have spots is a myth. Both sexes do, although males tend to be smaller than their feminine counterparts.

Not all wine is created equal in the Church’s eyes. Although vinum consecrated into the Blood of Christ doesn’t necessarily have to be top shelf Chateau Lafite Rothschild, there are standards for what makes the grade. Defined by Canon Law, wine used for Mass must be natural, made from grapes, and not corrupt. Artificial wines that taste like the real deal may not be used, nor can the fermented juice of strawberries, gooseberries, or any other substitute. Incorrupt means it can not have turned to vinegar, so if a $3,000 bottle of 15th century vintage has turned, it can no longer be used for the Blessed Sacrament.

Most know that the Pope is protected by the Swiss Guard, but were you aware that even the most devout member of the Church of Rome may not qualify for the honor? In addition to being a single Roman Catholic male, all guardsmen must possess exceptional character, stand at least 5’ 8 ½” tall, be between ages 19 and 30, have received military training in Switzerland, and completed mandatory conscription in the Swiss Army. He must also hold a professional diploma or high school graduation equivalent. Founded in 1506, the Swiss Guard is the oldest active military unit in continual existence, and holds the distinction of wearing uniforms attributed to Michelangelo’s creation: decked out in Medici family blue, red and yellow, but updated in 1914 by Jules Respond after he was inspired by Raphael’s Vatican frescos.

Pro-Life & Decency Report

Family Honor, Inc. - for Parents and Families

In the 25 years since Family Honor, Inc. was established, the organization has grown to fill the many needs expressed by parents, decision-makers in faith communities, adolescents, young adults, and many other adults who want to do something positive in their own community. In addition to family-centered programming and a college-level course for those who are interested in becoming chastity presenters, we also are now able to offer a wider variety of educational resources than ever before.

Family Honor will prepare and empower parents, the primary educators of their children, and church leaders to evangelize about the truth and meaning of God's gift of sexuality. Family Honor will help change the culture through a variety of age-appropriate, on-site, parent-child programs; our dynamic and in-depth online college-level course; and relevant, timely and easily accessible resources.

2 Help sell tickets at your local parish

Last year over $6000 of our total ticket sales were purchased by parishioners at our three local parishes. Only because of Brother Knights donating their time and effort at the weekend Masses was this remarkable amount achieved. The more Brothers selling tickets, the greater the results! To help assure a successful drive, please spend 15 minutes of your time before and after the Mass of your choice selling tickets on your parish's designated weekend.

Fr Emil Kapaun Considered For Veneration

The following is from an article at uCatholic.com: "In 1993, Pope Saint John Paul II named Kapaun a Servant of God. Now, a panel of archbishops and cardinals from the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints will meet on March 10th to vote on whether Kapaun should be named Venerable."

Golf Report

Our Westchester Knights Super Bowl Sunday was also a super golf tournament Sunday. We enjoyed great weather and golf with many winners. It was also a good birdie hunting day with four birdies scored.

Tom Hood captured his on #8, Ken Lockwood on the par 4 #10, and then, the crowd pleasing event of the day: Richard Wagner chipped in from behind the #13 green for his birdie, followed in about 30 seconds with Ken Lockwood chipping in on the same hole for his 2nd birdie. Wow!

Our next tournament will be on Sunday, March 1, at the Westchester Golf Course with tee off beginning about 11:15. All Knights and guests are welcome!

Fraternal Insurance Agent Report

Love is in the air! We spend a lot of time thinking about loved ones during February, especially around Valentine's Day. Technically, it's St. Valentine's Day, originally the feast day of a Roman saint from the third century. There is much speculation about the feast's origins, even discussion about the identity of the saint. We do know that St. Valentine was martyred on Feb 14, 269 and the feast day was instituted by Pope Gelasius I in 496. But how did this martyr come to be associated with love and romance? One popular story is that he cured the blind daughter of his jailer, and before he was led off to his death, he wrote her a note, signing it "Your Valentine."

Unlike St. Valentine, most of us are not called to martyrdom, but we do think about our loved ones, and we write love notes and greeting cards. Gifts are commonly given to those we love, but have you ever considered some special gifts for the ones you love?

That's really what insurance is all about. People buy insurance because they love someone. I bought life insurance because I love my wife and children. If I'm not here to provide for them I want to make sure they can stay in the same home we love; I want to make sure that my children will have the college education they will need; I want my family to continue to live the lifestyle I've been so fortunate to be able to provide. My policy even has living benefits that I can enjoy!

I want to make sure that if I am sick or hurt and can't work, my family still has money coming in to pay the bills. Disability Income Insurance helps provide for that. I've been able to provide a lifestyle for my family, but sometime down the road, I'll take the assets I've accumulated and retire. Long Term Care Insurance helps me protect those assets in case I have an extended care event. I won't have to spend all that I've saved to pay for care: I've shifted that risk to the Knights. My retirement annuities will help us enjoy our golden years. With a lifetime minimum interest rate guarantee I know I'll always be in the black with my account.

At this Valentine's Day season, let's sit down; you, me and your wife and see where you stand. Make sure you have insured your love. Go ahead and buy that greeting card, write her a love note...maybe even get a beautiful arrangement of flowers or a dozen roses. But remember, the gift of protection will be there when it's needed most.

DON'T LEAVE HOME WITHOUT YOUR ROSARY!

Remember to carry your rosary at all times
Pray the rosary as often as you can

Remember our deceased Brothers in your prayers.
