Grand Knight's Message

Greetings Brother Knights, Families, and Friends of Council #3744!

It is truly a blessing to see things opening up again. While we must certainly continue to be safe in our return, it is wonderful to be back in Church and enjoying the company of loved ones. We are happy to say that our next Council Meeting on May 4th will be back in the Hall at 7:30pm. Make sure to mark your calendar for these last important meetings of this tumultuous 2021 Columbian year and come with your ID card and badge!

Our Scholarship Program is happening right now (page 8). As you know it is funded by our annual dinners and we thank you so much for your enduring support. This season ends with a bang: Italian Dinner Friday 4/30 (page 7) and our Cinco de Mayo Fiesta, Friday 5/7 (page 12). Dinners are available to go, but indoor dining is happening too! Come enjoy delicious food while you check out the remodeled Hall ceiling.

Speaking of the Hall, we hope to begin rentals again beginning in July, all while employing COVID-complaint health and safety measures fully in line with County guidelines. The time to return to in-person events and activities is now, especially to Church, unless of course any dire health concerns exist. We hope to see you there!

Father Emil Kapaun Update

The nephew of Father Emil Kapaun has announced that his family accepted an offer from the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas, to “temporarily have Father’s remains placed in a crypt” at Wichita’s Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception while Kapaun’s sainthood cause is open for review. Ray Kapaun, who visited Council #3744 in 2013, added: “We felt that this would not only provide a secure place, but also provide a safe and suitable place for all to come to visit and venerate his remains.” It is expected that Father Kapaun’s final resting place will be in his hometown of Pilsen, Kansas; about 65 miles north of Wichita.

Assisting the Holding Co.

At the March 23rd Officers meeting, a unanimous vote of Council Officers approved a motion authorizing transfer of $10,000 to the Holding Co. in order to ensure maintenance and operating costs are covered for the facility at least through the beginning of the new Columbian year on July 1, 2021. The motion will be discussed and voted on at the May 4th Council meeting AT THE HALL! Join us and vote on this important issue!

Council Elections Coming Soon

We have reached that time again: all nominations for the 2021-2022 Columbian year are now being requested! Presented is a list of proposed candidates, but anyone can be nominated up to and during our June Council meeting.

Now is the time to get involved, Brothers! If you or a Brother Knight you know is interested in any position, contact a current Council Officer (page 14) and let them know your desired role. We look forward to seeing our many Brother Knights return to the Hall as we re-open, and we encourage everyone to join in the leading this grand venture!

Golf Report

We had 10 enthusiastic golfers playing our Westchester Knights of Columbus April event at the Westchester Golf Course. Perhaps the most spectacular event of the day occurred on the first hole. PGK Mike Rachford arrived in a rush, a just in time jog to the tee, grabbing a club, any club, from his bag and then hit the ball to the middle of the green, where he sank the birdie putt. An event not to be outdone for the day.

Our next golf outing will be at the Westchester Golf Course on Sunday May 2nd, with our first Tee time at 11:00. All of our KC members and guests are invited. Hope to see you there.

Next Tournament: May 2nd, 2021

Scam Alert!

Be aware there are people targeting Council 3744 members and parishioners of our Churches with a phony text scam. The individual pretends to be Fr Jim Forsen or another religious leader claiming to need a favor. It involves a request to purchase gift cards for him to pass on to needy people along with a promise to reimburse later. Do not fall for this scam! Unfortunately some parishioners have fallen for the ruse. Our priests will never contact you in this manner. Stay alert and don't be fooled.

What's Your Interpretation?

I recently decided to upgrade the paperback Bible I've had since high school. It's a New American Bible: a translation from 1970 that remains popular in the United States. It is one of three Catholic Bibles in English approved for use in the liturgy, as well as being the official translation of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. After doing some homework, I discovered there are many biblical options available depending upon the interpretation of God's word you prefer. There are literally dozens of English language Bibles, with each claimed to be "the most accurate" depending upon their supporters. It makes for a difficult choice, although in the end it's really up to you.

A second Catholic Church approved translation is the Revised Standard Version (RSV) Bible, noted for its flowery language and poetic ring. As for me, I decided to go "Old School," so to speak. The Bible I chose at the Pauline bookstore was a leatherbound Douay-Rheims version: the standard text used by the Church for 1,500 years. Douay-Rheims is a version of the Latin Vulgate Bible, meticulously translated from the original Hebrew and Greek by St. Jerome (AD 340-420). It offers a good change of pace for Catholics because whereas the RSV and New American versions of Exodus 20:15 read: "You shall not steal;" Douay-Rheims proclaims it the old way: "Thou shalt not steal." It is also the third approved Catholic version.

Interpretations of God's message do not end with three Catholic Bibles. Imagine the look on my father-in-law's face when he gave my wife and me a beautiful family Bible as a gift after our very Catholic wedding, and I had to point out it was the King James Version. Whereas Catholic Bibles include 73 books (46 Old Testament & 27 New Testament), the Protestant King James Bible is comprised of just 66, because Martin Luther tossed out 7 books of the Old Testament that conflicted with his theological views. Other Protestant translations include the Coverdale Bible, Geneva Bible, Bishop Bible, Great Bible, and more recently the New International Version, and The Living Bible.

Latter-Day Saints add the Book of Mormon to their use of the King James Version. The Ethiopian Bible contains between 81 and 88 books, while there are 79 in the Greek Orthodox Bible, and 77 in the Russian Orthodox Slavonic version. They make for a wide variety of choices; but in the end, when selecting which Bible you'd prefer to read, it's up to interpretation.
