Grand Knight's Message

Greetings Brother Knights, Families, and Friends of Council #3744!

While the city, county, state, country, and world continue to navigate through this current COVID calamity, we too are assessing our next moves. First and foremost, we will continue prioritizing the health and safety of all of our community members. At the same time, we are excited to be planning on and having several upcoming events that we may all enjoy together as the family we are.

Our Council Picnic and Awards Celebration will be Sunday, August 29 from 12 noon to 4pm at the Westchester Babe Ruth Field. Come join us for some food, some relaxing, and as always a lot of fun; all are welcome! More info on page 12.

With heavy hearts we grieve the loss of dear Jessica Leoni, as we also celebrate her entering into Heaven. We keep her and her family in our prayers, along with all who are grieving loss at this time.

As we remember those that gave us life, let us now remember to live! Vivat Jesus!

- Grand Knight Brian Lockwood, reporting

Car Show Fun at Farmers' Market

Thank you to everyone who stopped by the Knights' booth at the Westchester Farmers' Market on August 15th. Council #3744, along with our partners the Boy Scouts of America and Westchester Cleanup loved seeing you all there. Lots of kids took home prizes after playing free games, and hundreds of dollars in Rancho San Antonio raffle tickets were sold. People (and pets) loved the classic cars arranged by Brother Tino Carbajal. Special thanks to Brother Paul Callanan for coordinating the day's events!

Goodbye Sweet Jessica

Amidst a backdrop of purple and butterflies, Visitation Church was overflowing with people and emotions at Jessica Leoni's funeral mass, held on August 21st. Jessica was the light of her parents Brother Anthony and Lisa Leoni's lives, not to mention a precious jewel of Council #3744. Never did a meeting take place at our Hall when she was not brought up during closing prayers. The Leonis consider themselves fortunate to have been graced by their daughter's presence. Early in life she was diagnosed with a neurological condition known as Niemann-Pick Type C (NP-C) disease, a genetic condition that affects every cell in the body. It led to a rapid deterioration of her physical wellbeing – requiring around-the-clock care by her parents and caregivers, yet that never stopped Jessica's spirit from radiating goodness to those around her.

Many of you know the Leonis, or have seen their Fight For Jessica! advertisement in this bulletin over the years. Her cause, and the battle to defeat NP-C became their passion. It's a battle in which many have enlisted because of a young girl's inspiration. In the words of Jessica's father Tony: "Her gentleness of being was a magnet to others," and one that both attracted and radiated love. Visitation was a place Jessica loved; where she attended mass, and received all of her sacraments. They included her confirmation at which she took the name Esperanza – meaning "hope" – a fitting choice for Jessica, whose name means "God beholds."

After struggling with challenges we can never imagine, the Leonis' angel in life has become an angel in heaven. Her brief time on earth was filled with more blessings than most lifetimes triple the length enjoy. As was so eloquently relayed by her father - when asked what it was like to experience a seizure, little Jessica told her mother: "Mama, a very nice lady comes to visit me." After asking what lady she saw, the young girl paused and replied: "It's Mary, mama. Jesus' mommy." So it is that a young girl, who was comforted by Mother Mary in times of trouble, is now home with her and God. It's the place she rightly belongs.

Sweet Jessica Leoni brought out the best in people. Her last words to her mother, spoken many years ago, were: "Do good. Do good. Do good." Many people inspired by her have followed that advice. As a result, the world is a much better place for all of us to live. If we all continue to follow her simple request, then Jessica's fight will be won.

Golf Report

Our small group of our Westchester Knights of Columbus played in two foursomes on a fine day at the Westchester Course on Sunday August 11. Leading the way by Tom Hood, some good golf was played. The birdie scorers began with Joe Albrecht starting the day for us with one on the first hole, followed by Bob Degnan's birdie on his lucky hole 13 and then Tom Hood got his birdie on hole 16.

Our next golf outing at the Westchester Golf Course, is on Sunday September 5, and this will be our annual Westchester Knights of Columbus Championship. We missed this event last year because of the COVID pandemic, and our 2019 champion PGK Mike Rachford has been able to enjoy retaining the honor for two years! So we hope to have a great turnout. The champion low net winner, who must be a KC member, will have his name etched on the perpetual championship trophy on display in the club hall. The winner, as well as our guest winner, will also receive a personal trophy. All of our KC members and guests are invited. Hope to see you there!

Fraternal Insurance Agent Report

Some events are the harbinger of the change in seasons: swallows returning to Capistrano, opening day for major league baseball, kids getting out of school for summer vacation (and then school shopping in August!), football season in the fall with Halloween and Thanksgiving and finally ending the year with a Christmas celebration.

One harbinger of September that has been like clockwork over the past number of years is our Knights of Columbus Fraternal Survey. It's my chance to stay in touch with you, see what's changed in your life and let you know I am here to be of service.

Just like last year the survey can be completed online; simple, fast and confidential. I'm sure that as you look through the survey you might find a block to check; a subject you'd like some information on. Maybe you've been thinking about your life insurance and other benefits at work...are they adequate? Do I get to keep my group life insurance when I move to another job? Maybe you're thinking about a relative that's had a long term care event and all the agony and worry that entails. Maybe it's time to get serious about retirement.

Perhaps you have some products and you need service—a change of beneficiary or owner...or maybe you've moved and we need to update your contact information. Any of these can be addressed if you complete the survey.

In my travels around the area I often run into people who know the Knights of Columbus from our good works in the parish or community, our disaster response, support for Special Olympics and our prolife efforts. But very few of them know that we are a life insurance company...and we make no bones about that. After all Fr. McGivney saw that protecting our families was one of the two key reasons he brought those New Haven men together in the basement of St. Mary's in 1882.

“No doubt Father McGivney was motivated by the wish to keep young Catholics from entering the ranks of condemned secret societies and by the need to protect families during sickness and death.” (Faith and Fraternalism, The History of the Knights of Columbus 1882-1982 ; Christopher J. Kauffman, pg.17).

Unite men of faith and protect our families. Our Order has been faithful to that mission for 139 years. With the beatification of Blessed Michael McGivney I feel a renewed zeal to invite men to join the Order to reap those benefits of Unity, Charity and Fraternity. I am just as zealous to help protect Catholic families. Tempus fugit, memento mori!

They Don't Write 'Em Like That Anymore

In an October 1972 episode of the television show Emergency! – Jack Webb's spinoff of Adam-12, about the exploits of Los Angeles County firefighters – a Roman Catholic nun is critically injured after the school bus she's driving, filled with children, plunges down a ravine. In the show titled Saddled, Sister Barbara is played by actress Elizabeth Baur. Baur had a little insight into portraying a Catholic nun, because she graduated from Immaculate Heart High School in Los Angeles. Her performance is riveting, as are those of the show's co-stars Kevin Tighe (Roy DeSoto) and Randolph Mantooth (Johnny Gage). Their screentime together is particularly moving, in part because scenes like those they share just aren't scripted into television programs any longer.

While pinned in the wreckage of a crashed school bus, Sister Barbara asks Firefighter Paramedic DeSoto to retrieve her rosary, and read a prayer from a card pasted on the inside cover of her prayer book. After advising her he's not a Catholic, the nun replies: "I don't think God would mind." DeSoto then recites The Memorare for her in its entirety. It is both poignant and powerful as he slowly reads: "Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen."

Upon accompanying Sister Barbara to the hospital aboard a medivac helicopter at the injured nun's request, a visibly shaken DeSoto is confronted by Head Nurse Dixie McCall, who rhetorically asks him: "She kinda got to you, huh?" After admitting that was the case, and handing the nurse Sister's prayer book and rosary, he tells her: "You know Dix, she's quite a person.... I'm not very religious, but I've got a hunch that the doctors are gonna get some help with Sister Barbara." It's a beautiful exchange you need to see to fully appreciate. As Greg Kihn once sang: "They Don't Write 'Em Like That Anymore."

Tweaking the Format of Council Meetings

Earlier in the year, the Knights' Supreme Council modified the way local meetings are conducted in an attempt to streamline procedures and shorten their length. The idea was that condensed meetings would attract more council members, and that most nuts and bolts business matters could be handled by officers at their separate monthly meeting. Council #3744 implemented the new format, but as time has passed we've learned our members miss many of the things removed. That is why we are tweaking the format by bringing back some popular things that make being a Knight special.

Supreme's recommendations were never mandates. Although well-intentioned, members voiced dissatisfaction with no longer saying group prayers, or singing our order's odes. That is why we brought them back, and will henceforth use a modified version of Supreme's updated format. Additionally, there have been some problems with a few members not in good standing (those who haven't paid their dues) showing up for meetings. According to our bylaws, they are required to leave prior to the start of any business discussions, because they do not have a right to vote on items presented before the council. That is why we are reintroducing the checking of travel cards beginning with the September 7th general meeting.

An opportunity to update dues payments will be offered prior to the start of the meeting. If the noncompliant member chooses not to do so, he will politely be asked to leave, as that is a rule of our order. No hard feelings should be felt, because paying one's dues is part and parcel of being a Knight in good standing. We encourage all members to attend our Council's once monthly business meeting, held each first Tuesday at the Hall at 7:30 PM. All gatherings are preceded by a Good of the Order meal, served free of charge to members beginning at 6:30 PM. Meetings are conducted in compliance with health code provisions established by Los Angeles County, including the wearing masks when mandated. Along with a return of some popular practices, we hope to see more of you there.
