Grand Knight's Message

Greetings Brothers, Families and Friends of Council #3744!

To begin, let us never forget to thank our cherished parish religious, whom do so much for our spiritual survival. For good reasons, we have decided to postpone our annual Religious Appreciation Dinner until the summer. We continue to prepare for the celebration, as we yearn to return the thanks to our beloved faith leaders, as soon as the time is right.

Thank you also to everyone that made our February Fish Frys so freaking fabulous! If you were unable to attend, make sure you come to the Hall EVERY Friday in March to get your delicious fish fry dinners. Plan on staying for some fun, family BINGO too! (details on page 7)

If you are in need of assistance, contact your Brother Knights today! Stay safe, stay healthy, and stay in sync with God's time. Vivat Jesus!

Recognizing God's Little Miracles

It was typical of most weekends. I was trimming trumpet flower vines in the backyard. Snipping away at rapidly growing branches. Not paying much attention, other than trying not to cut any that might be tipped with a flower bud. Ready to sever a particularly long one, I secured it between the blades of my pruner and was ready to make the cut. All of a sudden, however, I stopped. An ever-so-brief glimpse of something odd caught my eye. There, hidden amongst the green, red, orange and yellow was a patch of charcoal gray. Something deep inside the shrub's intertwining network of creepers didn't look quite right.

Rather than sever the vine as planned, then take a look at it later, something caused me to pause and give the unusual little dark blotch a closer examination. I'm certainly glad that I did because secured to the base of the strong support branch was a golf ball size little nest. Protruding from its top were two tiny figures with needlelike beaks, ready for their morning meal. It was a pair of baby humming birds who unbeknownst to me had hatched and were living just a few feet from where I pass by every day. All I could think of was to thank God for allowing me to recognize them as being something special rather than ignoring those two little miracles. I just can't imagine the awful feeling had I taken their life line away.

There are a million little miracles surrounding us. They're hidden all around; often in plain sight, waiting to be found. Whether in bushes or trees, on sidewalks, or obscured behind walls, God's little wonders are there for discovery – if only we take time to recognize them. Some are fauna, others flora; some earthly and others heavenly. There are those that are intangible, like the miracles inside us all. Hidden by outward appearances, they can be imperceptible unless we bring them out into the open to share with one another. Hopefully we catch God's miracles, large and small, before we make that final cut without appreciating their beauty. By bringing man and nature's hidden treasures out into the open we expose the Good Lord's gifts, and hopefully will appreciate what is often left unseen.

A Big Game Day to Remember!

Thank you to Brother Keith Kutler for putting together our Big Game Day viewing party! Attendees dined on pulled pork sandwiches, pizza, potstickers, shrimp, salad, chips and so much more great food while watching the hometown Rams win it all. Everybody's stomachs are likely still full after watching a great game with friends!

Heaven Greets Two More Shepherds

We mourn the passing of St. Anastasia's beloved Pastor Emeritus Fr. Tom King who entered God's Kingdom in February, as well as St Anthony's former Pastor Reverend Robert Victoria. ## Golf Report

A good group of 14 Westchester Knights of Columbus golfers, enough to play in two flights, enjoyed exercising their skills at the Westchester Golf Course on Sunday February 6. Those skills were needed, as we found the greens to be unusually fast with the pin placements offering some winding tricky breaks. The scorecards were filled with the dreaded three putts and only two birdies were captured. There were 79 three putt holes for the group. Greg Phelps birdied the par 4 no. 5 and Guylaine Brosmer snared a closest to the pin prize on 13 and sank the putt for her birdie.

Our next tournament will be on Sunday March 6, 2022. Our first Tee Time will be at the usual 11:00 and we request everyone be there at least 15 minutes before their tee times. All of our KC members and guests are invited. Hope to see you there.

Fraternal Insurance Agent Report

March arrives and Lent begins on the very next day, March 2. We all know that Lent is the time of preparation for Easter. It begins on Ash Wednesday and ends with Holy Thursday. In order to prepare to celebrate the Lord's resurrection we are to exercise self-control and self-denial by fasting. We are encouraged to encounter Christ in the reading of Scripture and we are to serve others by the giving of alms.

When I was a kid, the "go to" self-denial was giving up chocolate...made those chocolate Easter bunnies most tasty! I think a lot of us are creatures of habit when it comes to self-denial. We continue on the same path, "giving up" the same things each year. Although self-denial is important as a practice, I've gotten a little older and a bit more introspective. I try to think of positive things to do rather than what I want to give up. Here are some of the things on a personal level that I'm going to try: Devote some time each day to reading Scripture. I'm not going to read whole books or commit to something I can't achieve, but for 10 minutes each day I'm going to read the Good Book. I think reading scripture every day is good habit to nurture.

Rather than "giving up" I'm going to try to "give away." It doesn't help anyone...other than me...if I give up chocolate again this year. But if I give away to the poor, that can have a positive effect on me and on someone else. God has blessed me with so many material blessings I can afford to part with some. And that includes money. I'm determined to be more generous this Lent.

As men of faith let's take advantage of some of the many program offerings during Lent. Some of these programs are done diocesan-wide, some at the local parish level, and many councils have special programs for prayer and reflection. If you are able perhaps you can lead or help lead a program at your council. I know for me, being involved with other men of faith strengthens me.

As we prepare spiritually for this new liturgical season of Lent, don't forget the temporal. Tempus fugit, memento mori! I am honored to carry on our blessed founder's vision of protecting Catholic families.

Vivat Jesus!
