Grand Knight's Message

Easter falls early this year, on March 31st, meaning the upcoming month will be jampacked with Lenten reflection, penitence, fasting, almsgiving, and charitable acts. The Knights & Ladies of Columbus will continue hosting fish & shrimp dinners each Friday evening, excluding Good Friday, serving meatless meals from 5:30 to 7:30 PM. BINGO! follows each dinner. Our Council will be involved in other activities, including one event that generated great emotional passion when it was held last year. No matter your parish, please join the Knights in the Visitation Church parking lot on Monday, March 4th at 6 PM, when Fr. Matt Wheeler will again lead the faithful on an outdoor procession of Stations of the Cross. So many people who attended last year's outdoor Stations commented on how powerful and moving it was. Fr. Matt, as most of you know, possesses God's gift of being able to offer incredibly insightful comments that heighten the experience, while placing the Lord's teachings into perspective.

When I was a boy attending public grade school, our mom would pull my brother and me out of school at 11 AM each Good Friday. We would head over to church, St. Catherine Laboure in Torrance, to attend Stations of the Cross, which was timed to culminate with the 13th Station – Christ's death on the Cross – taking place at noon. (Yes, we had to go back to school afterwards!) Of all my childhood's religious memories, those I am most fond of are not the ones involving gifts received on Christmas or Easter. Rather, it was our annual attendance of Stations of the Cross that left an indelible mark on my soul. They continue to move me to this day. I attend indoor Stations each Good Friday, and use an iPhone to access a video that accompanies my walk with God along the outdoor Stations route at least one time each Lent. With permission from Visitation's pastor, I've engaged in an annual tradition for several years now of handwashing the outdoor Stations' plaques prior to Lent. I guess it's my own way of honoring Jesus' washing his disciples' feet during Passover, prior to the Last Supper.

Our annual Religious Appreciation Dinner, held on Fat Tuesday, February 13th, was a resounding success on any scale. Bill Thompson, PGK, said the Hall was packed with more people than he has seen at any "RAD" in over 15 years. The night made us all proud to be members of the Knights & Ladies of Columbus. Our honored guests, priests and nuns who give so much to our community, had a wonderful time; as did four score plus more Knights and their families who dined with them that evening. See more about RAD in another article that appears in this bulletin. So many people volunteered time and talents, but we were all blessed by the incredible leadership of this year's coordinator, Brother Alan Engler! We even recruited one new Brother Knight candidate that evening. He and others will officially join Council #3744 as 3rd Degree members during an exemplification ceremony to be held at our Hall on March 12th, beginning at 7 PM. (continued next page)

The Sunday prior to it, Knights will be hosting hospitality, serving coffee and doughnuts, while holding a recruitment drive after masses at Visitation on March 10th. Stop by, say hello, and invite a friend to join our proud order.

- Grand Knight Mike Dorn, reporting

Big Game Day Party

Thank you to Brother Keith Kutler for hosting our annual Big Game (Super Bowl) party at the Hall on Sunday February 11th. It seemed as though the vast majority of attendees were happy with the Kansas City Chiefs' OT win over San Francisco's 49ers. Although other NFL franchises not involved in the game were represented by those who wore their team's colors to the party.

Religious Appreciation Dinner Report

We had a very successful dinner. Thank you all for coming out and supporting our religious at this event. We had 22 priests and nuns in attendance and 87 Knights, families and friends came to honor them. What a tremendous showing! And a tremendous meal too.

Special thanks to Marlene Kaufman and the Lady Knights for set up and serving, for Marlene and Steve for the decorations, for the cooking team of Chip Mallek, Paul Callinan, Linda Glaza and Steve Kaufman and to Bill Zimmerman for all of his assistance.

The new format was well received and will continue in the future. This included a special award to Msgr. Charles Hill for his lifetime of doing the Lord's work. And because my brother-in-law (Tom Serrato) donated all of the tri tip and Paul Callinan donated other items we were able to show a profit of $1,000.

- Alan Engler, RAD Chairman, reporting

Rancho San Antonio Update

Brother John Crowe, long time Director of Rancho San Antonio and 4th degree member of the Knights of Columbus, unfortunately has retired due to health reasons. He has moved to the Holy Cross Brothers Home in Austin Texas for his health care support. Brother John has devoted most of his ministry and his life to Rancho. He will be greatly missed. Please keep Brother John in your prayers as he transitions to this new stage of his life.

The K of C Rancho fund raising committee has decided not to have the Rancho Raffle Ticket drive this year. While Council 3744 has performed very well in these drives and I am extremely proud of our results, the overall results of the recent raffles really do not justify the enormous efforts so many Knights put out. Still I am personally saddened by the demise of this long time charity which I remember my Dad selling tickets. There will be other fund raising efforts by the Knights and I will share details once they are available. Rancho San Antonio and the young men it supports still deserve our help.

- Rancho San Antonio Chairman, Mike Engler, PGK reporting

Golf Report

Rain managed to cancel our February 4th Knights of Columbus tournament. Two of our avid golfers did jump among the puddles to get in 18 holes and reported they enjoyed the day.

Our next golf tournament will be on Sunday, March 3rd, beginning at our usual first Tee Time at 11:00. All of our Knights and guests are welcome. Hope to see you there!

Next Outing: March 3rd, 2024

RSVP Program

Over a number of years, Council 3744 has supported young men in discerning their vocation to the priesthood by providing a financial stipend of $500. The money is used to defray some of their personal expenses. This year's candidate once again was recommended by Fr. Paolo Garcia, Director of Queen of Angels Center for Priestly Formation. For those not familiar with this center, it is a facility where young men live as they discern their priestly vocation. While at the center they typically pursue their undergraduate degree in philosophy. The Center is located adjacent to Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance.

This year's recipient, Jonathan Sanchez has, a different background. Jonathan was born into a religious Catholic family in Aguascalientes Mexico. He completed his high school studies in a minor seminary in that city. He did his philosophy studies at Diocesan Seminary of Aguascalientes and completed his Philosophical Synthesis at the Pontifical University of Mexico in Mexico City. Jonathan studied theology in the Diocesan Seminary of Aguascalientes for three years. He is currently at the Center studying English while he continues to discern his vocation. His next step is completion of his studies at St John's Seminary. Jonathan will then be ordained as a priest for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Grand Knight Mike Dorn presented the stipend to Jonathan during the Religious Appreciation Dinner. We were also honored to host two of our previous awardees at the Religious Appreciation Dinner. Christian Eguaroje and Juan Pablo Chavez drove down from St John's Seminary in Camarillo to attend the dinner. They are both in their second year of theology at the seminary. Please keep these young men in your prayers as they continue pursue their priestly vocation.
